Dear Mrs. DeLuca:

The Eastern Forest Landowners Association/Wolf Den Land Trust (ECFLA/WDLT) gratefully accepts the donation of land at 175 Breakneck Hill Road in Killingly, Connecticut from Shirley L. DeLuca. We acknowledge that we provided you no goods or services for this donation. We understand that the conveyance is subject to the restrictive covenant that the land be managed for the following purposes, listed in order of importance; recreation, wildlife habitat, education, research and harvesting. Recreation implies Public Use of the land for the following activities: trails will be created and maintained for public use. No structures shall be erected or maintained on said premises.

On behalf of the Association I want to thank you again for your very generous gift.

Sincerely yours,

David B. Schroeder
Chair, Wolf Den Land Trust
